- Reminder: Quiz 5 Monday. Likely topic strings.
- Homework 8 supposed to be due today. Homework 9 on the Web. One more homework after that. I had planned to talk about Homework 9 today, but . . .
- Almost no one finished Homework 6 (due two weeks ago). I've graded four students' work, only two of which were reasonably complete.
No one has turned in a final version of Homework 7 (due a week ago).
So we'll use today's class to catch up on homework, and make the due date for Homework 8 Monday.
