- Reminder: Homework 5 due Wednesday.
(For any of you who are \LaTeX users, be advised that are packages that make it possible to draw both of the kinds of "pictures" needed for this homework. I can post examples?)
- Reminder: Quiz 4 Wednesday. Questions are likely to be about the parts of Appendix B we've talked about in class.
- Extra-credit assignment ("Homework X1") on the Web. Totally optional but would be a way to compensate for a poor score on the exam.
- (No lecture today — the technology did not cooperate in the 2:30pm section. Rats!)

- (My overall sense of what went wrong on the exam is that many people just didn't have enough time. Something for me to keep in mind for the next exam and if I teach this class again.)

Minute Essay

- What's your take on workload for this class? Going by the usual definition of a credit hour, you should be average about 6 hours outside class per week. Do you think you're spending about that, less, more . . . ?
