Administrivia

- I'm making progress on grading. I had hoped to catch up by today but no. Still, I've graded the big assignment (2a and 2b), and I'll continue making this a priority.
Grades for Homework 2a were pretty disappointing. It's worth a lot of points so really pulls down averages. I think when I'm able to include everything turned in, averages will improve.
Also I have what I think is a good idea for an extra-credit problem for 2a and will turn that into an assignment soon.
- Remember that I want your exams no later than end of the day next Wednesday.
