Written Report

The pseudo code report should contain:

1. Elements of your personal pseudo code language.
2. Pseudo code for each module in your program.
3. Selection of implementation language or package.
4. Reasons for language or package selection as compared to other choices.