

Review/Wrap-Up

10-6-2010

Opening Discussion

- No arrays on midterm.
- Minute Essay comments
 - Complexity of code to write on the exam.
 - Doing the bonus counting down (with i--).
 - Giving the second car different keys.
 - Best approach to studying.
 - Topics in the text that weren't covered in class.

Finishing Some Stuff

- As a method of review I want to start by finishing off our CityScape work.
 - One person per house.
 - Limited time in a house.
 - Walk randomly if there isn't a house available.
 - Don't go back to houses you have been in.

Review

- With any time we have left, let's run through the review sheet.

Minute Essay

- Remember, midterm review in the afternoon today and tomorrow.
- What questions do you have about our topics today?
